Arctic Dance:

The Mardy Murie Story

examines the life and times of Mardy Murie, affectionately known as the mother of the American conservation movement.

Arctic Dance recounts the exceptional life of a woman who grew up in frontier Alaska, married a pioneer arctic biologist, and dedicated her life to the protection of the magnificent wild lands she so passionately loves.

The film is 48 minutes.

"I hope the United States of America is not so rich that she can afford to let these wildernesses pass by, or so poor that she cannot afford to keep them."

— Margaret "Mardy" Murie, 1902-2003
