*There are strange things done in the midnight sun
By the men who moil for gold;
The Arctic trails have their secret tales
That would make you blood run cold

Pre-Proposal Data Submissions Timeline

April 2015	June 2015	September 2015	December 2015
Initial review of data set status; start initial conversations with data manager if packages need updating or creation.	Have a plan to ensure data are submitted and processed before proposal submission.	Re-access progress following field season madness and adventure; make sure everything is on course to meet end of year deadline.	Make final reviews of data to make sure everything has been processed.
